Revised 3/20
“Parents are a child’s primary teacher.”

The Whole-child Approach

Parents are encouraged to be actively involved in the home visits, as well as socialization events.

The Home-Based Program is for pregnant women and children birth-five years old.

Our philosophy is parents are their children’s first and most important teacher.

Child (birth to five) & Parent Support Services

Home visits cover areas of child development, health, nutrition, social, and emotional well-being. Home-Based model is fostering parent/child relationship.

• Supporting your role as your child’s first teacher
• Schedule weekly, 90-minute home visits
• Sharing and facilitating age-appropriate learning activities for you and your child to do together
• Monthly play groups and/or field trips
• Program provides school readiness
• Information and referrals to community resources

Pregnancy Support Services

Home visits from a maternal child health nurse include information about pre-natal and post-partum care, nutrition, breastfeeding, childbirth, and newborn education.

• Scheduled home visits during your pregnancy
  - Bi-weekly, 60-minute visit until 36 weeks of pregnancy
  - Then weekly, 60-minute visit until birth
• Birth planning assistance
• Doula referrals
• Four post-partum visits with baby and family
• Lactation counseling
• Services are designed to compliment your pregnancy care with your physician
