Eastwood Community Center
Board Report – January 2016

Center Happenings

CLP Meetings were held throughout the month.

The Community Volunteer Council (CVC) held a Mid-Winter Madness Team Trivia Pursuit competition at ECC. There were 19 seniors who competed as part of 4 teams.

Door prizes were given out to the winning team. All participants were given give-a-ways for attending

Senior Programming & Activities

The seniors held their regular games and activities – Bunco, Pinochle, Pitch, Bingo, and other card games

A Pet Workshop & Winter Care Workshop was held

A Monthly computer workshop for beginners is a new monthly activity for seniors who desire to learn and explore technology as it relates to computers, tablets, and smartphones.

Fall Prevention is a new workshop intended to help seniors maintain safety in while walking. The workshop is taught by an ECC Senior who attended the workshop. The workshop is sponsored by Office of Long-Term care

Tai Chi Chih is a new low-impact activity for seniors that focuses on balance and harmony.

FGP

FGP is holding periodic trainings and movie days at ECC.

Donation Program
