P.E.A.C.E., Inc., the designated Community Action Agency (CAA) for Onondaga County since 1968. As a family development agency, P.E.A.C.E., Inc. strives to 'help people in the community realize their potential for becoming self-sufficient' through a multitude of programs, serving infants to seniors.

These are some of the activities and services available at the County West FRC:

County West Employment Center

New York State Department of Labor listings, resume writing through referrals, and classes designed to help customers find employment.

EITC You've Earned It! (Free Tax program)

Tax preparation and e-filing taxes for low to moderate-income families.

Food Pantry

On-site emergency food pantry and referrals to local pantries. The pantry is open 8:30 - 4 Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Family Development Partnership

Family and worker establish partnership to set goals to help families become self-sufficient.

Food For the Parents' Soul

Parents support group meets regularly. Parent education, support and fun.

Neighborhood Advisory Council

Area residents and local merchants concerned about the community contribute ideas and suggestions often incorporated into FRC programs.

Treasure-Go-Round

A donation center that accepts clothing, small house-hold items and baby items for families in need in the community. Donations accepted during business hours only.

Treehouse Program

Homework assistance, volunteer opportunities, field trips, positive role modeling, special event activities and snacks and fun.
